~ A New Message From the Office of the Principal Allison Clous ~

Did you make a resolution for the new year?

Honestly, I didn't and I really never have. While looking for staff devotions to begin our new year, I came across this poem and thought I would share it with you.

The author wrote this to help build her spiritual strength.

So, if you are like me and really don't have a resolution (or do resolutions) maybe this poem will give you some encouragement through the year.

A New Year's Plan

I tried to think of a clever new phrase –
A slogan to inspire the next 365 days,
A motto to live by this coming New Year,
But the catchy words fell flat to my ear.

And then I heard His still small voice
Saying, "Consider this simple, daily choice:
With each new dawn and close of day
Make new your resolve to trust and obey."

"Don't look back caught in regret
Or dwell on the sorrow of dreams unmet;
Don't stare forward anchored by fear,
No, live in this moment, for I am here."

"I am all you need. Everything. I Am.
You are held secure by my strong hand.
Give me this one thing – your all in all;
Into my grace, let yourself fall."

So, at last, I'm ready; I see the way.
It's to daily follow, trust, and obey.
I enter the New Year armed with a plan,
To give him my everything. All that I am. --Mary Fairchild
